Thanks to its properties, the Tacoma collection can be used in places with increased or even extreme usage - in the living room of a home or on the terrace and in public places. The original pattern mimicking natural stone enhances the effect of modernity and allows you to create stunning designs.

/ steel

Tiles in shades of gray can be used on floors, walls, become a unique interior decoration or a subdued base of the design. They will provide a unique look that will change the space not only in the living room or kitchen, but also the bathroom.

/ sand

/ Marquina gold

The large format of the tiles will allow you to design a characteristic concrete wall in the living room and bedroom. When combined with designer furniture and original details, it will create an eye-catching, eclectic design in a modern style.

Tacoma grey 120x280

/ grey

Shades of gray are one of the most popular colours used in modern interior designs. They are universal, they match a plethora of other colors and materials, and with their timeless nature, it means that in spite of the dynamically changing trends, they will always remain in fashion.
